Welcome and Announcements

Prelude: "Ukraine Has Not Yet Perished" (M. Verbytsky, arr. D. Light)

* Call to Worship (Psalm 122)

One: I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go to the house of the Lord!"

All: Our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.

One: Jerusalem—built as a city that is bound firmly together.

All: To it the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, as was decreed for Israel, to give thanks to the name of the Lord. For there the thrones for judgment were set up, the thrones of the house of David.

One: Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:

All: "May they prosper who love you. Peace be within your walls and security within your towers."

One: For the sake of my relatives and friends I will say, "Peace be within you."

All: For the sake of the house of the Lord our God, I will seek your good.

* Hymn: "God the All-Terrible" (1-3; Chorley, Lvov: score on the back of this page)

God the All-Terrible! Thou who ordainest, Thunder they clarion, and lightning Thy Sword! Show forth Thy pity on high where Thou reignest; Give to us peace in our time, O Lord!

God the Omnipotent! mighty Avenger, Watching invisible, judging unheard! Save us in mercy, O save us from danger; Give to us peace in our time, O Lord!

God the All-Merciful! earth hath forsaken Thy ways all holy and slighted thy Word; Let not Thy wrath in its terror awaken; Give to us peace in our time, O Lord!

God, The All-Terrible!

RUSSIAN HYMN P. M.

Prayer of Confession:

Most merciful God, I confess that I have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed; by what I have done and by what I have left undone. I have not loved you with my whole heart; I have not loved my neighbors as I love myself. For the sake of my brother Jesus Christ, have mercy on me and forgive me; that I may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

All: May the Lord show you mercy, raise you to new life, and move you to live in love.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed; by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as we love ourselves. For the sake of our brother Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

One: May the Lord show you mercy, raise you to new life, and move you to live in love.

Assurance of Pardon:

Hear the good news: we are forgiven!

All: Thanks be to God.

* Gloria No. 756 (inside the back cover of of the NCHymnal)

Prayers of the People

One: May the Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Joys and Concerns

Pastoral Prayer, ending in the Lord's Prayer: Our Father (Mother/Creator) who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And let us not fall into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Scripture: Luke 11: 14, 17, 23-26, 29, 30, 32; 37-41;

Luke 12: 51-53a, 54-56; Luke 13: 31-35a

Words: Robert Grant, 1815, alt. Music: 'Aberystwyth (Parry)' Joseph Parry, 1879. Setting: "The English Hymnal", 1906. copyright: public domain. This score is a part of the Open Hymnal Project, 2008 Revision.

Hymn: "Savior, When in Dust to Thee" (Grant, Parry; score on the back of previous page)

Savior, when in dust to Thee low we bow the bended knee, When, repentant, to the skies scarce we raise our weeping eyes, O, by all the pains and woes suffered once for us below, Bending from Thy throne on high—hear our penitential cry!

By Thy helpless infant years, by Thy life of want and tears, By Thy days of sore distress in the savage wilderness, By the dread mysterious hour of the, insulting tempter's power, Turn, O turn a fav'ring eye—hear our penitential cry!

By the sacred griefs that wept o'er the grave where Laz'rus slept, By the boding tears that flowed over Salem's loved abode, By the anguised sigh that told treachery lurked within Thy fold, From Thy seat above the sky—hear our penitential cry!

By Thine hour of dire despair, by Thine agony of prayer, By the cross, the nail, the thorn, Piercing speark and torturing scorn, By the gloom that veiled the skies o'er the dreadful sacrifice, Listen to our humble cry—hear our penitential cry!

By Thy deep expiring groan, by the sad sepulchral stone, By the vault whose dark abode held in vain the rising God, O from earth to heaven restored, Mighty, reascending Lord, Listen, listen to the sigh of our penitential cry!

Sermon: "Whoever is not with me is against me?"

One: May the words of my mouth

All: and the meditation of our hearts be acceptable in your sight, O Lord, our rock and our redeemer.

Offertory: "Prelude in E minor," Op. 28, No. 4 (Frédéric Chopin)

Doxology: Praise God from whom all blessings flow, Praise God all creatures here below, Praise God for all that Love has done: Creator, Christ, and Spirit, One.

Hymn: "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" (Hoffman, Showalter; score on the back of this page)

133

Leaning on the Everlasting Arms

What a fellowship, what a joy divine, Leaning on the everlasting arms! What a blessedness, what a peace is mine, Leaning on the everlasting arms! Leaning, leaning, safe and secure from all alarms! Leaning, leaning, eaning on the everlasting arms!

O how sweet to walk in this pilgrim way, Leaning on the everlasting arms! O how bright the path grows from day to day, Leaning on the everlasting arms! Leaning, leaning, safe and secure from all alarms! Leaning, leaning, eaning on the everlasting arms!

What have I to dread, what have I to fear, Leaning on the everlasting arms! I have blessed peace with my Lord so near, Leaning on the everlasting arms! Leaning, leaning, safe and secure from all alarms! Leaning, leaning, eaning on the everlasting arms!
